

WHAT WILL YOU DO WITH ALL YOUR DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHS

Here are some ideas.....

- create a blog or website
- set up a digital photo frame slideshow
- make a “movie” slideshow in your computer and burn it to a disc
- make digital reproductions of your photos on canvas
- enter a photography show. Many art groups accept photographers and there are many opportunities to submit your work online
- create a family history using old photographs that can then be saved in an archival environment
- retouch old family photographs
- make a T-Shirt, apron, tote bag, or jacket
- make your own greeting cards
- mat and frame your work and hang them up on a wall
- order items like coffee mugs, magnets, and large posters
- create a photo book of your travels, family, friends or artwork
- make collages or decoupages using your own photographs
- inventory household items
- get postage stamps
- use your photos to sell online on Ebay, Craigslist, or post to various social networking websites
